Subject: Price Increase

Dear Valued Customer,

We hope this message finds you well.

Effective June 1, 2025, or as contracts allow, Covestro, LLC will increase the price of all standard polycarbonate products by $0.15/lb ($0.33/kg) in all segments in North America. Purchase quantities prior to the effective date of the price increase may be limited to customers' historical demand rate or agreed upon volumes.

Your sales representative will contact you to explain this increase in more detail and to answer any questions you may have. We appreciate your business and look forward to supplying your standard polycarbonates requirements.

Sincerely,

Covestro, LLC
